Product Description

Apollo DB-27 110cc Dirt Bike

The Apollo DB-28 110cc Dirt Bike is built for riders who want the thrill of motocross without the complexity of manual shifting. Its fully automatic transmission means you can focus on the ride instead of gears, while the electric start makes it easy to fire up and go. With a lightweight frame and moderate power, the DB-28 is perfect for kids, teens, and new riders stepping into dirt biking.
